

Discover a More Efficient Way to Print Investor Communications

Expedite production and delivery for proxy statements, annual reports and more.

Print, distribute and process with a single supplier.

Reduce time in transit.

Eliminate freight-cost uncertainties.

Streamline your entire print-to-mail process.

Streamline your investor communication process with a single-source, full-service solution to ensure a smooth transition from printing to distribution.

Proxy statements. Annual reports.

Large volumes, last-minute edits, and mandatory mail dates can make it challenging to get these critical communications into the hands of investors on budget, on time, year after year.

Now you can streamline this process and ensure a smooth transition from printing to distribution. Let the one firm you trust to process your critical communications handle the print production as well.

With a single-source, full-service solution, you can eliminate costly shipping charges, expedite processing and ensure you print only the quantity required—to exact specifications. Plus, every project is backed by the undisputed reliability and quality you've come to expect from Broadridge.

Print Solutions deliver:

SINGLE-SOURCE ADVANTAGES

Let the experts in Investor Communication logistics handle your print and mail.

VALUE-ADDED SAVINGS

Take the guesswork out of printing with accurate quantities and no shipping expense.

EXPEDITED SERVICE

Benefit end-to-end, with well-coordinated print-to-mail capabilities and consolidated time-line.

Document Management

In addition to supporting printing and distribution, our team can also take your raw files and turn them into print ready files through our typesetting service. Beyond preparing your documents for printing, our team of experts can help you meet your SEC submission requirements by preparing and filing SEC documents to EDGAR.

About Broadridge

Annually, Broadridge distributes over one billion investor communications, including proxy materials, investor account statements, trade confirmations, tax statements and prospectuses.
